

A PLEASANT STROLL THROUGH RIOJA & SOUTH AMERICA AT LuLo 7 TAPAS MATCHED WITH 7 WINES - $79pp

Celebrate Melbourne Food & Wine Festival and join Master Chef Matt Waldron on his approach to Spanish & Latin Cuisine, wine specialist Daniel Fellhandler from Wines of Chile, & renowned Spanish sommelier Raul Moreno Yague from Vinoteca Australis, on a journey through a Spanish & Latin American food & wine culture

Friday 12th March, 12.30 – 3pm

“A Pleasant Stroll through Rioja”

Hosted by Raul Moreno Yague

Raúl Moreno Yagúe, was born and bred in Seville, Southern Spain, he started his career in hospitality as chef in Seville where he studied culinary arts. At the tender age of 18 he relocated in London where he worked for acclaimed chef Marco Pierre White at his signature restaurant Mirabelle and completed his trainee ship as a Sommelier.

Raúl relocated in 2003 where he work for successful restaurateur Paul Mathis as Head Sommelier at S.O.S restaurant from where he moved to work as Head Sommelier at Vue de Monde restaurant.

Nowadays Raúl Moreno Yagúe is the director of 'Vinoteca Australis', a wholesale company of Spanish wine and an active member of the Australian Sommelier Association where he is continuously organizing tastings and educational seminars.

Friday 19th March, 12.30 – 3pm

“An Exploration of South America”

Hosted by Daniel Fellhandler

Civil Industrial Engineer and Diploma in Winemaking from the most prestigious Oenology School in Chile (Pontificia Universidad Católica De Chile).

Daniel has worked with some of Chilean finest estates as Export & Marketing manager.

“I have been privileged to be able to base my experience in the understanding and knowledge of the Chilean 'territory', travelling and tasting wines from the each region”.

In the last 5 years Daniel has been working with the Chilean & Argentinean wine industry promoting and developing wines brands through fifteen countries.

“I am constantly participating in wine dinners, tasting and presentation in wine shows as an educational program for Wines of Chile and Argentina in Australia”.

He is currently working as a Sales and Marketing Director of Wines of Chile, an Importer Company in Australia of Fine Wines from South America.

 BOOKINGS ESSENTIAL – Ph. 9818 8321 OR VIA EMAIL info@lulo.com.au